UNVEILING EXTRAVAGANCE THROUGH DESIGN

Two decades later, my passion for Architecture and Interior Design burns brighter than ever. My affection has deepened, fueled by a profound admiration for those dedicated to achieving design brilliance. This publication epitomizes exactly that.

DUNE RETREAT

The house embraces a palette of natural, sustainable, and neutral materials, weaving a tapestry of serene hues and organic textures. Stone accents grace the foundation, infusing solidity and timeless elegance. Concrete walls exude modernity while grounding the space in authenticity. Natural paints adorn the surfaces, breathing life into the rooms with subtle, earthy tones. Light woods, meticulously chosen, add warmth and harmony, forming a delicate balance between nature and design. This harmonious blend of stone, concrete, natural paints, and light woods harmonizes to create an environment that both honors the earth's resources and crafts a haven of contemporary comfort.

DESERT REFUGE

Situated in Paradise Valley, Arizona, this desert haven is a contemporary architectural refuge. It's a recipient of numerous accolades, including the 2021 Gold Award in Best in American Awards, 2022 Silver Award in The Nationals for Best Interiors of a Custom Home, and 2021 Grand Award in Gold Nugget Awards for Best Interior Design of a Custom Home. Notably, these awards are exclusively for this house, not others by Drewett Works. Despite being an 8-year-old firm, such recognition is due to experience. The residence, orchestrated by Founder and Principal Architect C.P. Drewett, is a symphony of luxury. Drewett, with a history in building and architecture, understands clients desire stewardship, leadership, and vision, traits his firm delivers.

Collaborating with Arizona's Bedrock Developers and Mara Interior Design, the project caters to a nature-loving family's lifestyle. Over nearly three years, this contemporary masterpiece blends neutral tones and textures, creating an elegant interplay of materials that honor the environment. Weathered stones, aged woods, and subdued metals converge, forming a tactile symphony. Sleek paving unites outdoors with indoors, while expansive windows bridge interior and landscape. The flat roof with a bold black border contrasts against neutrality, capturing attention and accentuating clean lines.

Upon entering, the patio beckons with an exquisite stone arrangement. Inside, the living room showcases dark brown furniture against pervasive beige and limestone cladding. Opulent carpets and upholstery enrich communal areas, complemented by tasteful d'art accents. Ceilings boast white oak paneling with protruding black steel, integrating roofing structure. Subtle downlights and air vents align with the ceiling. Circular steel beams connect indoor-outdoor bar, creating design continuity. The house is a superlative curation, transcending global standards, and providing an ideal stage for collaborative endeavors.

KITCHEN

A MODERN OASIS

The expansive open-plan kitchen exemplifies minimalist artistry. A grand design range hood commands attention above the white stone island. Contrast is created by the sleek black stovetop juxtaposed against white and wood counter stools. This modern flair complements the backdrop of pristine white minimal cabinetry. A clean workspace with a contemporary sink is skillfully etched in the center. Aligned with the home's focus on entertainment, the kitchen functions as the nexus for familial and social connections. Positioned to the far right, a neatly integrated nook features a cushioned semi-circle bench. A round marble table takes center stage, accentuated by a three-ball glass-blown chandelier that elegantly melds warm and dark tones.

A MODERN OASIS

Perched in scenic Paradise Valley, the property harmonizes with the mountainous backdrop, framed by azure skies and gentle hill peaks that grace the residence's roof. The exterior boasts creamy sandstone, seamlessly merging with the environment. An elongated staircase by the poolside gracefully leads to an expansive green garden. Thoughtfully arranged outdoor furniture offers spaces for relaxation, dining, and cooling off in the pool. With white ledge loungers, cushioned pool recliners, designer chairs, and outdoor sofas, the setting invites residents to bask in nature's beauty while embracing comfort and style amidst the captivating landscape.
